

Birmingham Industrial League Team Photos

1. American Cast Iron and Pipe (ACIPCO) (1936)
2. American Cast Iron and Pipe (ACIPCO) (1937)
3. American Cast Iron and Pipe (ACIPCO) (1938) Photo 1
4. American Cast Iron and Pipe (ACIPCO) (1938) Photo 2
5. American Cast Iron and Pipe (ACIPCO) (1939) Photo 1
6. American Cast Iron and Pipe (ACIPCO) (1939) Photo 2
7. American Cast Iron and Pipe (ACIPCO) (1941)
8. American Cast Iron and Pipe (ACIPCO) (1942)
9. American Cast Iron and Pipe (ACIPCO) (1943)
10. American Cast Iron and Pipe (ACIPCO) (1949)
11. Birming Port Pirates (c. 1970's)
12. Connors Steel (1967)
13. East Thomas Eagles (c. 1970's)
14. East Thomas (c. 1970's)
15. East Thomas (c. 1970's)
16. Stockham Pipemen (c. 1930's)
17. Stockham Valvemen (1963)
18. Stockham Valvemen (1964)
19. Stockham Valves and Fittings (1978)
20. Westfield (1947)

American Cast Iron and Pipe
(ACIPCO)
1936

American Cast Iron and Pipe
(ACIPCO)
1937

American Cast Iron and Pipe
(ACIPCO)
1938

(Artie Wilson – seated second from right and Ed Steele – standing third from left)

American Cast Iron and Pipe
(ACIPCO)
1938

(Artie Wilson – standing first on right and Ed Steele – standing second from left)

American Cast Iron and Pipe
(ACIPCO)
1939

(Standing left to right – Ed Steele, Earl Little, Alnelson Sanders, Eugene Battle, Lorenzo “Pipper” Davis, Robert Bolden, Waldo Dudley, Lawrence William, Walter Calhoun and William Powell. Front row left to right – William Howard, James Williams, Jimmie Shamburger, Charlie Woodard, Walter James Parker, Austin, Artie Wilson and Harry Simpson.)

American Cast Iron and Pipe
(ACIPCO)
1939

(Artie Wilson – middle row first on right, Ed Steele – middle row second on left and Lorenzo “Piper” Davis – front row first on right)

American Cast Iron and Pipe
(ACIPCO)
1941

(Artie Wilson – back row second from left and Ed Steele – front row first on right)

American Cast Iron and Pipe
(ACIPCO)
1942

(Artie Wilson – seated fourth from right)

American Cast Iron and Pipe
(ACIPCO)
1943

(Artie Wilson – third from right)

---

---

Acipco Baseball Team Captures City Championship; Team Witnesses Big League Game Played In St. Louis

Members of the Acipco Colored Baseball Team, 1949 City Champions, are shown receiving trophies as the team prepared to board the train September 21 for St. Louis where they saw a game played between the Brooklyn Dodgers and the St. Louis Cardinals. At the left, C. W. Askev, executive secretary of the Colored Y.M.C.A., is presenting the City Championship trophy to Robert E. Bolden, team manager, while at the right, Shedrick Jones, team captain, receives the Red Division trophy from Nathaniel Borden, president of the Colored Y.M.C.A. Industrial Baseball League.

American Cast Iron and Pipe
(ACIPCO)
1949

Birmingham Port Pirates
(c. 1970's)

Connors Steel
(1967)

East Thomas Eagles
(c. (1970's))

East Thomas
(c. 1970's)

East Thomas
(c. 1970's)

Stockham Pipemen
(c. 1930's)

1963 VALVEMEN—at least a few of them above and the men who serve on their Transportation Committee. They are: front row, left to right, Melvin Stoves, Melvin McCain, Tom Jefferson, James Rowell, J. D. Kelley, and Roland Foster; back row, Henry Shanks, Johnny Crawford, Henry Elmore, Henry Howell, Karl Lewis, Marshall Knowles, and J. D. Myree.

Stockham Valvemen (1963)

THE 1964 BASEBALL TEAM, above, are front row, left to right: James Ivory, first base; Ronnie Smith, third base; Melvin Stoves, shortstop; Calvin Orange, centerfield; Joe Wilson, manager; Earnest Taylor, pitcher; McKinley Burnette, pitcher-outfield; James Jones, outfield; and Herbert Paymond, pitcher. Back row: Charlie Harvey, pitcher; Clifford Dubose, second base; Karl Lewis, utility-infield-outfield; Raymond Higgins, right field; Lorenzo Davis, player-coach; Oscar Ridgeway, centerfield-first base; James Townsend, pitcher; Charlie Harris, left field; Henry Elmore, shortstop; William Harris, pitcher; Robert Brown, catcher; and John Sims, scorer. Not shown are Walter Stoves, catcher; and John Crawford, pitcher.

Stockham Valvemen (1964)

July 1978

STOCKHAM'S VARSITY BASEBALL TEAM, at mid-season, holds an enviable 12-0 record for regular season play and is undefeated in two tournaments. The team will travel to Louisville August 17 for the National Southern Tournament. Seated, left to right, are Spencer Westbrook, Lawrence Howard, Calvin Orange (captain), Oscar Williams (manager), George Nichols (co-captain), Henry Brown, and Alfonso Holt.

Second row, left to right, Oliver Holt, John Sims, Henry Elmore, Edward Smith, Joseph Nunn, George Drummer, Jesse Taylor, and Otis Thorn. Standing, left to right, are Emory Anthony, Jr., Al McGrew, Walter Maddox, Willie Campbell, guest of the team, Sam Ashford, Earnest Fann, Charles Calhoun, and Wilmon Bryant.

Stockham Valves and Fittings (1978)

Westfield
(1947)